He is a past President of the California League of Middle Schools and has received numerous awards, including the 2008 Ferd Kiesel Award from ACSA, their highest statewide recognition. Dr. Price and his district were featured in the American Executive—July 2010 issue as one of 30 school districts in the nation thriving during tough fiscal times.

He has been married to Sally for 37 years. Bob and Sally have two children, Geoffrey, 31, and Caitlin, 29. Geoffrey is a sound engineer living in San Francisco, and Caitlin is a graduate Ph.D. student at U.C. Berkeley.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in honoring and commending Dr. Robert Price, Empire Union School District Superintendent, for his numerous years of selfless service to the betterment of our community.

IN MEMORY OF KRYSTLE
CAMPBELL

HON. EDWARD J. MARKEY

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 23, 2013

Mr. MARKEY. Mr. Speaker, Krystle Campbell, a resident of Arlington and graduate of Medford High School, lost her life at the Boston Marathon finish line doing what she loved to do: support other people. She was 29 years old, just a few weeks from her 30th birthday, with a lifetime of helping more people ahead of her.

Krystle's annual pilgrimage to the marathon finish represented who she was, says her family. When people needed support, Krystle was there. When her grandmother needed help following surgery, Krystle moved in with her for two years to help her recover.

Krystle's smile, hard work, and constant happy demeanor is what her family and friends will miss. But most of all, they will miss what she was always known for: being there when you needed her, being a joyful, active participant in the lives of her family and friends.

In our grief, we know that Krystle is still there, still cheering all of us on, still there in our hearts. Today we honor her memory and the joy she brought to so many lives.

IN SPECIAL RECOGNITION OF JARED KOBYSKI ON HIS OF-FERS OF APPOINTMENT TO AT-TEND THE UNITED STATES MILI-TARY ACADEMY AND THE
UNITED STATES AIR FORCE ACADEMY

HON. ROBERT E. LATTA

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 23, 2013

Mr. LATTA. Mr. Speaker, it is my great pleasure to pay special tribute to an outstanding student from Ohio's Fifth Congressional District. I am pleased to announce that Jared Kobyski of Bowling Green, Ohio has been offered appointments to the United States Military Academy in West Point, New York and the United States Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Jared has accepted the offer to attend the United States Military Academy in West Point, New York.

Jared's offer of appointment poises him to attend the United States Military Academy this fall with the incoming Class of 2017. Attending one of our nation's military academies not only offers the opportunity to serve our country but also guarantees a world-class education, while placing demands on those who undertake one of the most challenging and rewarding experiences of their lives.

Jared brings an enormous amount of leadership, service, and dedication to the incoming Class of 2017. While attending Bowling Green Senior High School in Bowling Green, Ohio, Jared was on the Honor Roll and was a member of the National Honor Society.

Throughout high school, Jared was a member of his school's cross country and track and field teams and earned varsity letters in both sports. In addition, Jared was a Senior Patrol Guide and a member of the Royal Rangers. I am confident that Jared will carry the lessons of his student and athletic leadership to the Military Academy.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating Jared Kobyski on the acceptance of his appointment to the United States Military Academy. Our service academies offer the finest military training and education available. I am positive that Jared will excel during his career at the Military Academy, and I ask my colleagues to join me in extending their best wishes to him as he begins his service to the Nation.

THE OCCASION OF THE DEDICA-TION OF GABRIEL ZIMMERMAN
ROOM

HON. SHEILA JACKSON LEE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 23, 2013

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor the legacy of Gabriel "Gabe" Zimmerman, a young man devoted to community service, and the great democratic principles upon which our government stands.

Gabriel Zimmerman was murdered on January 8, 2011, struck down in the prime of life at the young age of 31. He was one of several persons killed or wounded during the mass shooting in Arizona that so seriously injured our colleague, former U.S. Congresswoman Gabby Giffords. Gabe Zimmerman is the first congressional staffer to be killed in the line of duty.

As the Community Outreach Director for Congresswoman Giffords, Gabe organized the "Congress at Your Corner," at a supermarket in Tucson, Arizona, where the mass shooting took place.

Colleagues remember him as someone who would go out of his way to help people in trouble, who attentively listened to the concerns of constituents, and who had a real gift for working with people.

I rise today not only to commemorate Gabe Zimmerman but to speak out against the scourge of gun violence our nation faces.

We have all been shaken by tragic events in recent days and years involving gun violence.

Whether these events occurred in Newtown, Connecticut; Aurora, Colorado; Tucson, Arizona; or on the streets of Chicago, gun violence is a critical issue that we need to effectively address immediately. Urban, suburban, or rural—no region or community is immune to danger of gun violence.

While the nation's attention has often been drawn toward some of the more high-profile events, the broader statistics are disturbing, demonstrating a real need to address how we protect our nation's children from gun violence. Consider these facts:

Every 30 minutes, a child or teenager in America dies or is injured by a gun.

Every 3 hours and 15 minutes, a child or teenager loses their life to a firearm.

In 2010, 82 children under 5 years of age lost their lives due to guns.

To put that in perspective, 58 law enforcement officers died in the line of duty that year.

In light of recent tragedies, the American people are demanding action. One thing we can do immediately to reduce the incidence of gun violence is to pass H.R. 65, the Child Gun Safety and Gun Access Prevention Act of 2013, legislation I introduced to protect our nation's children from gun violence and accidents.

H.R. 65 will prohibit persons under the age of 21 from possessing semiautomatic assault weapons or large capacity magazines.

Moreover, H.R. 65 increases penalties on individuals who knowingly transfer a handgun, ammunition, semiautomatic assault weapon, or large capacity ammunition feeding device to a person under age 21.

In addition, H.R. 65 will also prohibit importers, manufacturers, and dealers from transferring firearms without providing the purchaser with a gun storage or safety device.

Finally, H.R. 65 authorizes the U.S. Attorney General to provide grants to enable local law enforcement agencies to develop and sponsor gun safety classes for parents and children.

These provisions, and others, can go a long way toward making our homes, schools, and streets safer for children across this country.

Mr. Speaker, we may not be able to prevent every gun-related tragedy from occurring in the future, but we have a responsibility to implement reasonable standards that will prevent the loss of innocent lives.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF STEPHEN COATS

HON. JANICE D. SCHAKOWSKY

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 23, 2013

Ms. SCHAKOWSKY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the life of Stephen Coats, a great friend, tremendous leader, and tireless champion for working people throughout the world.

Throughout his life, Stephen was driven by his unwavering commitment to social justice. From his years as political advocacy director for Bread for the World, where he fought global poverty, to his work at the US/Guatemala Education Project (US/GLEP) in the 1990s, where he worked to insert language to protect worker rights, Stephen's work emphasized our common humanity and international solidarity.

After US/GLEP broadened to become the U.S. Labor Education in the Americas Project
